Subject No. 89.
Rewards to persons impounding cattle.

Summary of discussion.—Fines on impounded cattle are now credited to Government and no reward is paid to those who impound trespassing cattle. The rates of fine may be enhanced, $\frac{1}{4}$th of the fine recovered being paid as a reward to persons impounding cattle.

Reply of Government.—Compensation for loss or damage is being given under the Regulation. Nothing more is necessary.

Subject No. 90.
A non-official Local Fund Member for each Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—A Non-official Member for each Taluk may be appointed to the Local Fund Board to represent the grievances of the people of that Taluk.

Reply of Government.—The new Local Boards Regulation will provide for the needful.

Subject No. 91
Levy of Octroi on piece-goods.

Summary of discussion.—In large villages, where no Octroi duty is levied, piece goods fetch better prices than in towns where this duty is paid, and thus merchants in towns are placed at a disadvantage. It is therefore prayed that the duty may be made general or abolished entirely.

Mr. Shamaiya of Kankanhalli said that Octroi should be extended to Hobli Kasbas.

Mr. Chandrasekharaiya and others of the Mysore Municipality, proposed that the duty might be levied on all piece-goods and cloths alike.

Reply of Government.—Under consideration.

Subject No. 92
Cart-tax to be credited to Local Funds.

Summary of discussion.—The cart-tax levied in villages may be credited to Local Funds, instead of to Provincial Funds.

Reply of Government.—This cannot be done.

Subject No. 93.
Raiyats not to be compelled to do earth work for wells.

Summary of discussion.—Drinking water wells are constructed for the use of raiyats at great cost. The raiyats are compelled to do the earth-work which after all amounts to only a few rupees. It is prayed that the raiyats may not be asked to do any work for wells which should be constructed wholly at Government expense.

Reply of Government.—There is no rule compelling raiyats to do the earth-work in such cases.

Subject No. 94.
Assessment on lands within Municipal limits and on lime Kilns.

Summary of discussion.—The assessment levied on lands given out for cultivation within Municipal limits as well as the tax on lime kilns may be credited to Municipal Funds, as represented in 1893.

Reply of Government.—An alienation to Municipalities of Land Revenue proper cannot be allowed.

Subject No. 95.
Revision of House Tax.

Summary of discussion.—The rates of House Tax may be revised so as to make the scale equitable.

Reply of Government.—Under consideration.

Subject No. 96.
Nomination of Taluk Sheristadar as Ex-Officio Member of Taluk Kasba Municipal Board.

Summary of discussion.—The Taluk Sheristadar may be appointed an ex-officio Municipal Member and entrusted with supervision over sanitary works at the Taluk Kasba.

Reply of Government.—Noted.
